To ANY of our friends who desire a beautiful article in the line of boots, shoes or gaiters, made to order, of the best stock, and in any style or pattern desired, we would say try Wm Ehler's before going elsewhere. 10 19t.

Mr. GEO. STEINHOUSE, barber and hair dresser, corner of Eighth street and Commercial avenue, desires to call the attention of the community to his newly arranged saloon, and the fact that he is master of his profession in all its branches. He has boarded many a lion in his den, and all for more. 11-22-1t

Mrs. ANNA LANG, Eighth street between Commercial and Washington avenues, has just received a large and varied stock of fall goods, and desires to call particular attention to her handsome assortment of ladies' and children's underwear, something new in this market. Her toilet drawers and leggins combined are something new and the most comfortable thing for children in cold weather. Mrs. Lang also has a well selected assortment of hats, bonnets, ribbons, flowers, and notions of all sorts, all of which will be sold as cheap as can be found elsewhere in this market. 10-19-1m

LADIES' and gentlemen's kid gloves in all colors from 75cts. to $1 per pair. Call and examine the two button wristed kids before purchasing elsewhere, at Hartman's. 12-11t

LOUIS BLATTEAU, whom everybody knows, and who is the friend of everybody, is now fully installed in his new saloon, on Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues. He offers to be public the best St. Louis beer, the choicest brands of wine and the purest liquors to be found in the city, and hopes that these, civil treatment and a cordial reception will insure to him a generous share of public patronage. Come and see his new home. He has a welcome for everybody, and for you, reader, cordial one. 12-11t

FOR SALE.—My residence and two lots on Eighth street between Walnut and Cedar street. For further information apply to B. F. FIELDS, at Fields' stable, Tenth street between Washington avenue and Walnut street. 12-10-1t.

A CARD.

To my friends and patrons: As I was very unexpectedly called here by the severe illness of my mother, I am happy to inform you all that the crisis is past and she is improving. Nothing preventing, I will soon be at my post again in Cairo, serving my patrons to bits of cold steel, in the most agreeable manner possible. As an emblem of purity snow will do, but "the muchness of the snow" in this locality makes it very inconvenient getting about.

A. M. AUSTIN.

THE "THALIA"

A SINNER'S ADVICE.

Be wise, and repair to the "THALIA" saloon. Where citizens gather, morn, even, and night. 'Tis there you get Oysters and Turkeys and Clams.

In every style desired;—also, Sugar cured Ham.

Oh, as for the Drinks!—they're superior and fine.

No bogus potato-bug broth, I am sure, But genuine Liquor, as mild as May.

Warm you just right, and enliven your city.

"Our" Jaekel will brew you a capital Punch.

Or draw you a glass of prime Lager for Lunch.

Each morn you'll find there a bountiful spread.

Roast and broil'd, hot soup, with excellent bread.

Of all Cairo's saloons, the "THALIA's" about.

No drunkards or rowdies are bobbing around.

No "roppers" or gamblers are there to be found.

So like thee, to Jaekel's for Oysters and "Rich."

And if he don't suit you, then call me a wit.

The mocking bird tunes up his whistle to wile.

Your musical taste in a wonderful style; Geraniums and hyacinths, there may be seen.

The windows, adorned with beautiful green.

How few are the cooks that can properly stew.

The delicious bivalves, (which you know to be true).

But A. Jaekel has got the whole science by heart—

Stew, broil or patties—he is "boss" of the art.

On Washington avenue, corner of Twelfth.

In safety and peace you can drink a friend's health.

There too, you can read all the news of the day.

And moderate the charges he asks you to pay.

Old Christmas is coming, and then you'll find

The patrons of "THALIA" are not lost to mind.

He will show you a sample of what he can do.

A. Jaekel's a Brick—a thorough "True Blue."

Good News.—One of the largest and most complete stock of custom-made boots and shoes ever brought to this market, has just been received by Messrs. Hardy & Greenwald, No. 105 Commercial ave. These gentlemen are both practical workmen in the boot and shoe business; have had a larger experience, and cannot be deceived into purchasing anything but the very best stock.

FRAGRANT SOZODONT.—Hardens and invigorates the gums, purifies and perfumes the breath, cleanses, beautifies and preserves the teeth from youth to old age. Sold by all druggists. 12-29-1 wda.

LASTING LOVELINESS.—Twenty years ago, when paint, pearl powder and enamel were ruining the complexion and destroying the health of women of fashion, Hagan's Magnolia Balm was brought out as a pure botanical cosmetic, guaranteed to restore bloom and purity to the skin.

From that time to the present it has been continually rising in public estimation as the safest and most unexceptional preparation of its class. Instead of producing an artificial, metallic surface, like the deadly enamel, or wilting the cuticle like the poisonous fluids sold under various names as "beautifiers," it keeps the skin as soft as velvet, renders it as smooth and glossy as satin, and imparts to it that delicate ringy tinge, which is the ideal of complexional loveliness. The exquisite chromatic effect is not transient. By applying the Balm daily it may be prolonged from youth to age. A lady who purchased the first bottle of the article nineteen years ago, writes to say that her complexion at forty is "purer, clearer and more brilliant than it has ever been," and she attributes it solely to the daily use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. 12-29-1 wda

WINTER BOOTS AND SHOES.

Railroad men, farmers, draymen and all others whose business lays out of doors, and who for the preservation of health and good temper ought to wear good, heavy water-proof boots, can get just what they want by calling on Wm. Ehler. He makes French calf or kip boots, warranted to fit well, wear well and give general satisfaction. 10-29-1t.

ATTENTION.

Received daily by express at Winter's grocery in Winter's block, the following goods kept in ice: Fresh white fish, salmon, bass and perch; fresh oysters, direct from Baltimore, by the can at 40c to families, warranted good; also New York sounds, by the quart; clams and fresh lobsters; squirts, ducks and other game; celery and fresh Ohio butter, always on hand; also all kinds of vegetables and fancy groceries, sliced ham, &c., besides a variety of other articles, including oranges and lemons, all of which will be sold at fair living profit. 10-19-1t.
